Dear Jafar,

RE: Opt-In to Interactive Team Instruction (ITI) Option for Term 3/4 (BPM3/PCM1)

The Academic Progress Review Committee in the office of the Dean of Basic Sciences has assessed the overall performance of students enrolled in the Basic Principles of Medicine 2 (BPM2) course in Term 2 and wishes to offer you the opportunity to enroll in the ITI delivery of Term 3 (BPM502). Alternatively, you may choose to remain in the Live-Lecture Delivery (LLD) for BPM3.

- For information on the ITI delivery of the MD program, please consult the description of the ITI Delivery in the current Student Manual (<https://www.sgu.edu/studentmanual/>).
- For information on the difference between the ITI experience and the LLD experience, please reach out to the SOM Academic Advising office (AADS) at academicadvingsom@sgu.edu
- For information on the ITI schedule, please consult the Office of the University Registrar (OUR) page on the University Portal for a detailed term schedule. (<https://mycampus.sgu.edu/registrar/Academic-Class-Schedules>)
- To opt into the Please click on the link to opt-in ITI for Term 3/4 <https://sgu.wufoo.com/forms/qrb5aij12o31eo/> Choose the option "Entry following the end of term"

- Once you have opted into the ITI delivery of the MD program, you will remain in that delivery format for the duration of the academic term at which time your performance will be reviewed by the APRC to determine if you should remain in the ITI for the subsequent term or be offered the opportunity to return to the LLD delivery.

The deadline for submitting this decision is 5:00 pm (Grenada time) June 1st, 2026

If you do not reply by the specified deadline, you will remain in the LLD delivery for BPM3/PCM1

Your decision at this time will not affect any future offers to opt-in to ITI during the course of Term 4.

Yours sincerely,
